The Bachelor of Music degree at Coe College is an intense pre-professional music curriculum, designed to prepare students for professional careers in music or for graduate study in music. Approximately two-thirds of the required coursework is in the Music Department, as compared to the Bachelor of Arts degree in music which requires about one-third of the total coursework to be in music subjects. As a result, while double majors are possible with the Bachelor of Arts degree, they are not practical, at least within a typical four-year framework, when one pursues the Bachelor of Music degree.

Do you intend to pursue a Bachelor of Music degree at Coe? _____ Yes _____ No
If you answered yes to the question above, which emphasis do you intend to pursue? (circle one)

Composition	Instrumental performance
Vocal performance	Vocal music education
Keyboard performance	Instrumental music education

Please attach a separate sheet to list briefly any honors or accomplishments that might indicate your eligibility for this award.
