

Peter N. McCormick
Professor of Philosophy
Coe College
pmccormi@coe.edu

Education

Cornell College, B.A., 1965 (Philosophy & German)
Oxford University, B.A., 1968 (Philosophy & Psychology)
University of Michigan, Ph.D., 1973 (Philosophy)
University of Iowa, M.S., 1991 (Computer Science)

Awards

Phi Beta Kappa
Danforth Fellowship
Woodrow Wilson Fellowship
Rhodes Scholarship
NEH Summer Fellowship

Courses Taught (partial listing)

Philosophy: Introduction to Philosophy, Logic, Ethics, Morality and Moral Controversies, Ancient Greek Philosophy, Early Modern Philosophy, Professional Ethics, Medical Ethics, Philosophy of Science, Mathematical Logic, Lies and Secrets: The Ethics of Candor and Consent
Computer Science: Structured Programming with Pascal, Problem Solving with Pascal, Programming Languages, Machine Architecture and Assembly Language Programming, Artificial Intelligence, Database Systems
Other Courses I'm Willing to Admit to Having Taught: Game Theory, Human Nature and Cognitive Science, The Essay, Theories of Human Nature in Literature, Honors Seminar in Writing, Introduction to Computer Applications

Primary Academic Interests

Character-Based Ethical Theories
Moral Decision Making

Writing

Resolving Moral Dilemmas (Ethics Text)
Logic and Its Application (Logic Text)