Essay Question-Required

The essay is an important factor in the decision for admission to Coe College. It reveals a part of you in a way that the objective data like grades and test scores do not. Have fun with it, but remember that your essay should be carefully prepared as it represents a major component of your application to Coe College.

Please write a one or two page essay on one of the following topics:

1. Humor is often called life's best medicine. Describe a time in your life when humor has helped in a difficult situation.
2. You are running for President of the United States. What are the issues most important to you and what would you like to achieve during your presidency?
3. In the spirit of Ben Franklin, what invention would you create to make life easier, to advance society, or to simply make life more interesting? Explain.
4. Topic of your choice.

Please attach a separate sheet of paper for your essay, or e-mail it to admission@coe.edu

I certify that the above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. The College may use it for research purposes with the guarantee of anonymity. Upon enrollment at Coe College I will have received a high school diploma or its equivalent. I also give my guidance counselor permission to release my transcripts and high school records to Coe College.
