

WORLD'S BEST

What's Happening at Coe College?

Friday, February 18th Events

Late Night Bowling

12-2am- CR Bowling Center Free bowling for Coe Students and prospective students. Presented to you by Student Activities Committee.

Blindspot

10pm- Dows Theatre
Student run 'open mic'
night where performers have the stage for five minutes to do...whatever!
There are only three rules, don't hurt the audience, the space, or yourself. The best part is that the audience is blind to your faults!

Baked Goods and Coe's Best Kept Secret

7:30-10pm-Peterson Hall
Tunnel
An evening of conversation and entertainment in the Writing

Kohawk Athletics

10am-10pm-
Coe Natatorium

Cheer on the Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving teams as they host the Liberal Arts Championships!

Saturday, February 19th 2pm & 4pm Eby Fieldhou
se

Women's and Men's Basketball teams host University of Dubuque.

Faculty Music Recital

7:45pm -
Daehler-Kitchin
Auditorium-Marquis
Hall Vocalists, instrumentalists and pianists will perform

Magician

Nate Staniforth 8pm-
Charlie's PUB
"I'm a magician...I live in Iowa...what else do you want to know?"

Staged Reading

7:30pm- Dows Theatre
A Man, his Wife, and his H at

Written by Lauren Yee, the 2011
Coe College Playwriting Festival winner and directed by Professor Steven Marc Weiss. This is a beautifully written play—puzzling at times, funny, sad and, in the end, emotionally fulfilling.