

SATURDAY,
NOVEMBER 14, 2015

Crimson & Gold Visit Day

Colleges always say, "Visit! See what it is like to be a student on our campus!"

At Coe College, we really mean it. Join us for meetings and events that mirror what you will find on the daily calendars of our students. Live the life of a Kohawk for a day.

10:00 AM

REGISTRATION & CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

in Phifer Commons in Gage Memorial Union.

ORIENTATION TO CAMPUS

Talk to faculty, students, coaches and staff representing the offices and programs that connect with our students from their first day on campus until the last.

10:30 AM

MEET MY PROFESSORS

Faculty and students will bring academics at Coe to life as they showcase the opportunities that set our graduates on a path of success. Explore the classroom, research and internship offerings that exist in your primary area of study.

12:00 PM

LUNCH - EAT IN THE "U"

Continue your conversations, ask new questions and delve further into areas of interest as you chat with students, coaches and other members of the Coe community in a casual luncheon setting.

MEET MY FUTURE CLASSMATES

Go beyond the statistics as Julie Staker, Dean of Admission, shares details about the most recent class of Kohawks. You will also meet the admission staff who will be with you every step of the way as you make your own college selection.

1:00 PM

GO TO CLASS (Students)

Get a sneak peek of Coe's academic life and experience student-centered learning firsthand as you take part in a mock college class.

ASK THE PRESIDENT (Parents)

President David McNally will lead a panel of students, staff and faculty who are ready to answer your questions. Learn how your student can be involved, double major, gain real-world experience through internships, research or off-campus study...and still graduate on time!

1:45 PM

ASK THE PRESIDENT (Students)

Our panel members, led by President David McNally, will give you real answers to your real questions about academics, involvement, roommates, the food and more.

THE VALUE OF A COE EDUCATION (Parents)

We understand that college is an investment for you and your student. Join staff from the Admission and Financial Aid Offices as well as alumni and business leaders as they share with you the value of a Coe education.

2:30 PM

FLOOR MEETING

See where you will sleep and study as well as the campus hot spots where you'll hangout, go to meetings and meet other Kohawks.

COE COLLEGE