

SOPHOMORE HOMEWORK WEEK @ COLEGE

Monday, September 12

Sophomorepalooza!

8:00 – 10:00 (pm) The PUB

You made it---you met the challenges of your first year of college.

Come Celebrate!

Tuesday, September 13

Financial Literacy

3:00-4:00 (pm) Computer Lab, Lower level Stewart Memorial Library

L. Kabela-Coates, B. Hoffman, A. Colehour, and H. Patterson

Discover answers to your financially related questions or concerns, such as—How do I become a millionaire? — How can I make wise purchases (and save money)? — How can I budget my money? What do I need to know about my financial aid package? And so much more!

Prioritize, Plan, Play: A Time Management Workshop

4:00—5:00 (pm) Learning Commons Presentation Wall (lower level SML)

Brought to you by the Speaking Center Staff

Learn time management skills to help you organize your day to fit both study and play!

The Deep Dive into Research

6:30 -7:30 (pm) The Writing Center, Stewart Memorial Library

Elizabeth Hoover de Galvez and Jane Nesmith

Are you interested in doing independent research or a thesis project to fulfill your practicum requirement or to gain departmental honors? Even if you're still only thinking about it, come to The Deep Dive to learn from other students who have completed independent research and to meet upper level students who are starting their thesis this year.

Wednesday, September 14

Sautéed Caterpillars and Other Reasons You Should Study Abroad

12:00 – 1:00 (pm) HH 205

John Chaimov and Derek Buckaloo

Investigate the benefits of study abroad; explore the many opportunities available and ways to integrate the experience into your academic plan.

Sautéed Caterpillars and Other Reasons You Should Study Abroad

4:00 – 5:00 (pm) HH205

Derek Buckaloo and John Chaimov

Investigate the benefits of study abroad; explore the many opportunities available and ways to integrate the experience into your academic plan.

Practicum and Pizza

8:00 – 9:00 (pm) Clark Alumni House

Elizabeth Hoover de Galvez and Kayla Lyftogt

Investigate ways to earn practicum credit. Explore ways that other students have achieved this important milestone in a Coe education!

Thursday, September 15

Character Day

8:00-9:00 (pm) Learning Commons Discussion Wall

Erik Albinson and Kim Pierson

Not Deadpool or Daenerys---you! What kind of person are you? Who do you want to be? What mark do you want to leave?

Friday, September 16

Common Hour Meet & Greet Ice Cream Social

3:00-4:00 (pm) Perrine Gallery Stewart Memorial Library

Connections are so important in discovering opportunities. Come introduce yourself and learn more about your teachers and mentors

"Drive-In Movie"

9:00 (pm) Stewart Memorial Library Quad

Part of Family Weekend Events

Grab your family and friends for an enjoyable night at the movies. Enjoy popcorn and soda as you watch a family-friendly movie on a 50-inch screen.

Sponsored by Coe College Learning Commons