

COE COLLEGE GUIDE TO Student Life Office

2020-2021

The mission of the Student Life staff is to enhance the quality of the liberal arts experience as it occurs through the co-curricular programs and student services of the college. Helping students to make informed decisions that contribute to their own well-being is of particular importance to the staff. Students are encouraged to complement their classroom experience with appropriate participation in campus activities as a means of mastering the skills and values of responsible adults. To this end, the staff promotes co-curricular activities on campus and in the community that foster intellectual, social, emotional, cultural and spiritual maturity. Please contact them if they can be of any assistance to you. A summary of the responsibilities of the Student Life staff is as follows.
