

Transfer Student ORIENTATION

AUGUST 22, 2023

Check-in & Move-in

8:00 AM - 10:00 AM | Phifer Commons, Upper Gage Memorial Union

If you are living on campus, you will receive your key and can start moving in. If you are a commuter student, please arrive between 9:30 AM - 10:00 AM to receive your orientation check-in items, including a welcome packet and t-shirt! Student Financial Services, Health Services and Human Resources staff will be available to collect any missing forms and answer any questions.

Welcome & Understanding Your Coe Experience

10:00 AM - 10:30 AM | CJ Lynch Room

The liberal arts experience at Coe is designed to give you strong opportunities to explore new topics in academics and all aspects of student life. Find out more about the education program that will shape your time as a Kohawk.

Making a Successful Transition

10:30 AM - 11:00 AM | CJ Lynch Room

The Office of Student Success and Persistence at Coe is here to help ensure a smooth transition to campus. Learn more about our success coaches, and how they will help support you as you learn more about how to be a successful Kohawk.

Make it Happen by Getting Involved

11:00 AM - 11:30 AM | CJ Lynch Room

Learn about all of the ways you can develop your leadership skills and get involved in the Kohawk community. From becoming a member of Greek Life, to joining a student organization, there's no limit to finding your niche on campus!

Ringing of the Victory Bell

11:30 AM - 12:00 PM | Eby Fieldhouse, Victory Bell

Participate in this famous Kohawk tradition and "ring in" the start of your time at Coe!

Lunch

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM | The "U" Dining Center

Join us for lunch in the "U" with your CAP (College Adjustment Peer) and meet other new Kohawks!

Work-Study Success Orientation

1:00 PM - 1:30 PM | Kesler Auditorium

This informational session is mandatory for students who have been offered work-study.

Navigating Coe IT systems with CAP Leaders

1:30 PM - 2:15 PM | CJ Lynch Room

CAP Leaders will go over the academic systems students regularly use and will provide guidance on how to keep yourself organized as you prepare for classes.

An Introduction to Title IX, Conflict and Conduct on Campus

2:15 PM - 3:00 PM | CJ Lynch Room

Unite with other Kohawks to learn how we create a safe campus culture for one another. We will be discussing sexual violence awareness, prevention and intervention.

Advising & Registration

2:15 PM - 3:00 PM | Faculty Offices

Students who are not registered for courses will meet with their advisor to discuss course options and complete registration.

Kohawk Resources Tour

3:00 PM - 4:00 PM | Camp walking tour

Meet representatives from C3, Student Financial Services, IT, Library, TRiO/AAP, Student Success & Persistence, Health Services, Multicultural Affairs, the Mailroom and Student Life to learn about how to get support as a student from Coe.

Kohawk Flocks: Grocery Bingo

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM | Cherry Auditorium

Grocery Bingo is one of Coe students' favorite activities. Come play with other new Kohawks and win prizes!

Find Your Classes

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM | Various academic buildings on campus

Now that you have your schedule, Orientation staff and CAP leaders will be available to help you find each of your classrooms so you can feel prepared for class tomorrow.

Picnic Dinner & Field Day

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM | Armstrong/Douglas Hall Quad

Come enjoy a grill-out on the quad, play games and mingle with your fellow Kohawks before classes start tomorrow!
