

Coe College Residence Life Learning Outcomes

As a result of living at Coe College for four years, residents will.....

1. Achieve Academic Success

- Residents will develop productive study habits
- Residents will learn when to seek academic support services
- Residents will learn to study effectively in a residential environment

2. Develop Healthy Lifestyles & Relationships

- Residents will develop positive, healthy, social relationships and practice consent
- Residents will lead a healthy lifestyle physically, emotionally, and sexually
- Residents will perform basic life skills (i.e. laundry, cleaning, attending classes, etc.)

3. Demonstrate Diversity & Inclusion

- Residents will incorporate inclusive terminology into their everyday speech
- Residents will respect diversity and all cultures, on and off-campus
- Residents will utilize Multicultural and LGBTQ centers as a source of information and understanding

4. Expand Self-Regulation and Cognitive Complexity

- Residents will demonstrate self-advocacy and self-sufficiency
- Residents will show empathy and understanding while living with others
- Residents will showcase increased openness to challenge and self-growth
- Residents will seek to understand issues from multiple viewpoints, and be able to consider conflicting perspectives simultaneously